

QUESTION #5 (15 Marks)

- a) What does SPI value of 1 mean?
- b) A project controlling shows an actual cost of 800, an earned value of 780 and the planned value is 810. Calculate the schedule variance.
- c) A project's actual cost is 2100 and the earned value is 1500. What is your cost variance?
- d) What is the current state of a project if the CPI is > 1 ?
- e) Your SPI is 1.1 and your CPI 0.9. What is the current project status?
- f) The cost performance index of a project is 1.15 and the earned value is 2590. Calculate the actual cost
- g) What does a cost variance of 0 mean?
- h) A project controlling shows you an actual cost of 3300, an earned value of 3000 and the planned value is 2900. Calculate the schedule performance index.
- i) What does a CPI of 1 indicate?
- j) How do you interpret a SPI value of 1.3842?

QUESTION #6 (15 Marks)

- a) Mention and explain 4 software testing technique
- b) What are the common software metrics. Give brief explanation
- c) There are principles of software quality assurance techniques that ensures product delivers value and satisfy their requirements. Explain 4 of these key principles and how it affects software quality assurance

 END OF PAPER *****

OBAFEMI AWOLOWO UNIVERSITY ILE-IFE, NIGERIA

FACULTY OF TECHNOLOGY

DEPARTMENT OF COMPUTER SCIENCE & ENGINEERING

CPE 508 Computer System Project Management

Rain Semester Examination
2022/2023 Academic Session
July, 2024

INSTRUCTIONS

TIME ALLOWED: 2 Hours

ATTEMPT ALL QUESTIONS IN SECTION A AND ANY FOUR (4) QUESTIONS IN SECTION B

SECTION A (10 Marks)

- 1) The output of every activity is known as _____
- 2) A dependency relationship type where the successor activity cannot start unless the predecessor activity finishes is called _____
- 3) A mark that signifies the end of a set of activities in a project is known as _____
- 4) _____ is an amazing tool in project management that shows a hierarchical breakdown of work activities that are used to define the scope of the project. WBS
- 5) A type of dependency where activities stay the same, yet, the order changes, is called _____
- 6) A process to 'mitigate the adverse effects of loss' in Project Management is called: _____
- 7) The ultimate aim of a Project is to _____
- 8) External stakeholders can be _____ and _____
- 9) Decision tree analysis is majorly used for _____
- 10) In making decision, it means you have _____

SECTION BQUESTION #1 (15 Marks)

- a) Correlate between Openness in the group and confidentiality as norms of a project team.
- b) There is diversity in IT project; why do you need a legal adviser in the project?
- c) A project is proposed to develop a transcript system for the university;
 - (i) What are the ethics of the project
 - (ii) Why do you need the commitment of Top management
 - (iii) What will make this project successful?
 - (iv) As a member of the team, what are your obligations?

QUESTION #2 (15 Marks)

- a) What are the characteristics of organizational structure?
- b) When do you need Monte Carlo simulation?
- c) As a project leader, You are required to develop a traffic control system for Obafemi Awolowo University;
 - (i) Explain your planning decisions
 - (ii) How will you manage change decisions
 - (iii) Give the tracking decisions you will use
 - (iv) What are your relationship decisions?

QUESTION #3 (15 Marks)

- a) Describe with examples the different types of dependencies that exist in Precedence Diagramming Method (PDM)
- b) Distinguish with full description the difference between Strategic planning and Tactical planning
- c) Discuss the processes involved in Project Scheduling

QUESTION #4 (15 Marks)

- a) Using the acronym SMART, discuss the essential characteristics of a good Computer Project Management.
- b) Propose a medium-scale Computer Project (Mention the name of the Project) and discuss the salient features of a good Project Management Technique that you will recommend for Members of your Team to consider.
- c) Explain five(5) stages of Project Management and mention the deliverables at the end of each stage